

SIRAK MIGUEL BALOYAN

Creator • Innovator • Virtuoso • Producer • Composer • Artist

Sirak Miguel Baloyan, talented musical creator who grew up in Tijuana, Mexico is now one of the most recognized musical exponents of the world.

Sirak, since very young, showed his creative ability. It has given him numerous awards and acknowledgments throughout. His very particular musical expression with instruments, shows a true example of his originality and style.

His life experience and world travel has given him the knowledge of the different styles, culture, rhythms and genres that evolve around the planet.

Now, with more than 20 years experience, we can perceive his impressive work in his albums as an artist as well as a musical producer. He has produced for high ranking Latin artists such as: Angela Carrasco, Bertin Osborne, etc. He has also collaborated with top producers such as Rudy Perez.

In 2002, he was awarded Platinum as a producer for most popular Spanish singer Bertin Osborne, album titled "Sabor a Mexico"

Sirak is a voting member of the National Recording Academy "Grammy" and is affiliated to performing rights organization ASCAP. Also, a graduate of Dick Grove Music School in Los Angeles, graduate of San Diego State University, student of the Music Conservatory of Puerto Rico, producer and A & R of SBB Productions, President of SBB Records and director of recognized radio programs.

With well over 100 compositions in different genres; pop, balads, nortenas, rancheras, tropical, dance, boleros, mariachi, bossa nova, latin jazz, dance etc. Many of them, recorded by very popular international artists.

In 2002, Sirak's innovations continue to grow. His dream of gathering excellent musicians from the Antilles (Caribbean) is now a reality thru the formation of his well recognized orchestra SONORA ANTILLANA. His new album, DE LA MATA is definitely a title that will soon become a success. DE LA MATA, a first class project, will be exposed to Latin-America and Europe. DE LA MATA produced by Sirak himself is recorded in Puerto Rico and contains 10 of Sirak's compositions.

The arrangers that participated are also very well known in the field, they are: Jose Madera, Tommy Villarini, Rafael Torres, Tito Rivera, Mandy Vizoso and Sirak.

In Feb 24, 2008, Sirak y Su Sonora Antillana performed at OSCAR NIGHT after party concert sponsored by Billboard Magazine and Children Uniting Nations. The annually event is attended by top celebrities from the film and recording fields because of the events traditionally star-studded concert which follows the awards broadcast viewing. The events prior post-awards concert performers have included Prince, Wyclef Jean, Ruben Studdard, Stevie Wonder, Chaka Khan, The Black-Eyed Peas, Gladys Knight, Al Green and many more.

In Feb 22, 2009, Sirak y Su Sonora Antillana performed OSCAR NIGHT after party for the second time in a row.
